Norfolk, VA 23508-1278

Dear Sirs:

It is so sad to read about all the animals in this world being eliminated, one by one.

Please do something to stop the deaths of whales. Apparently the Sonar is the culprit! Can't the volume by the sonar be cut down lower and still afford training for the Navy?

Thank you for listening.

Sincerely,
James W. + Mildred Jones

P.S. We live on the coast, that's why we're so interested.
